ALL ABOUT THE GROOVY FADS... TIPS... TRICKS... FASHIONS... DOINGS... WHATEVER TEENS ARE DREAMING UP ALL OVER THE COUNTRY!

TEEN FADS

Everyone around here is sealing their letters with glow stickers—they're cool! You seal your envelope with a sticker that has a happy or sad expression depending on what you've written in the letter!

.....Linda Germano, Denver, Colorado

The fad around our town is throwing baby parties. All the kids have to come dressed in clothes like for the ages of one through six—and you can't come in without showing a baby picture of yourself!

.....Sherry Frazee, Los Angeles, California

When you're goin' steady, you and your guy get the same outfit together—like dungaree bell bottoms, white shirts, print ties or scarves—and you both wear 'em whenever you go!

....."Jeannie and Tom", The Bronx, New York

All the girls are wearing suspenders attached to their mini-skirts or pants. The suspenders that are really in this year are made of gold chains decorated with flowers that you clip on!

.....Helen O'Reilly, Brooklyn, New York

TIPS FOR GROOVY TEENS

Take some map hooks and screw them onto the bottom of a wooden clothes hanger. Makes a perfect place to hang and store your buckles or chain belts!

.....Debra Rosenberg, Dallas, Texas

The boys from our service club in school held a marathon baseball game with all the money from the tickets going to support the hospital ship, Hope. They had different kids signed up to play each other for a whole weekend. All the other kids came to watch. They made a lot of money and everyone had a great time!

.....Sheila Shapiro, Oceanside, New York

Take your old shift-style dresses and sew loops on the outside of each shoulder. Then put a brightly colored triangle-shaped scarf around your neck, pull it through the loops, and knot on one shoulder. Gives that old dress a new look!

.....Marlene Brown, Ontario, Canada

Sew two bath-sized turkish towels together at the shoulders leaving enough room to slip it over your head poncho-style. You tie it around your waist with a chain belt, and you've got a neat mini-bathrobe to wear after your shower or bath!

.....Greta Goldberg, Miami Beach, Florida

Which kind of TYCO action do you prefer?

HO is America's most popular action hobby. Some fellows prefer the skill and detail of TYCO HO Scale electric trains. Others prefer the excitement and competition of TYCO road-racing. Here are the facts—you decide.

If rough-and-tumble competition is for you—TYCO road-racing gives you everything but the smell of scorched rubber and the roar of the crowd. You actually race 500 miles per hour or more in true HO scale. TYCO gives you magnificently detailed cars, more action, more track. More interesting track layouts, too, that you can tear down and rebuild in minutes, with our unique snap-together "Tyco-Lok" track. Endless hours of competitive excitement will be yours with TYCO road-racing.

If long-range action, planning and engineering are for you—so is TYCO HO railroading. You think out dozens of different layouts—build the one you like best. You engineer the details and realism: remote control coupling, log, coal and ore unloading; automatic crossing gates . . . bridges, trestles, tunnels—whole towns with TYCO trains whistling through them—and you're running the show. It's a long-range hobby you can enjoy alone—with friends or with Dad.

Dear Debbi... HELP!

Dear Debbi,

I really want to break up with my steady boyfriend but I don't know how to go about it without hurting his feelings because he still likes me very much. We are both teenagers. How should I do it?

... "Painted", Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania

When a couple breaks up, someone always gets hurt. You can make it easier by facing him honestly and talking about how you feel. Say that although you still like him very much and you want to stay good friends, you feel it's not right to limit yourselves only to each other at this stage in your lives. He may be hurt at first, but later on he'll respect you for your honesty!

Dear Debbi,

Which kind of girl do boys like better—the shy, quiet type or the loud, funny kind of girl?

... "Wanting to Know", Coffeyville, Kansas

Boys like a combination of both types and a smart girl knows when to be silent and when to sparkle. If he's in the mood to talk, you break up and later, when he's feels low, it's time for you to carry the conversation ball. At no time should a girl be too loud—it embarrasses any boy!

Dear Debbi,

What can you do when you're dying for a new clothes and your parents don't have the money to give you for a new, nice wardrobe?

... "Old Hat", Lincoln, Nebraska

You give your old clothes a new look by adding cool accessories. Friendship, a gold chain belt and a pretty necklace will make that old outfit look up-to-the-minute. A pretty scarf tied around your waist adds sparkle to that old shirt and skirt. You don't need lots of money to look good—what you need is lots of imagination!

Dear Debbi,

Some of my friends and I are disgusted with the parties around here. Everybody dances for a while, then someone always turns the lights low and it becomes a make-out party. We don't like it. How can we change things?

... "Disgusted", Galionville, Ohio

Be prepared with fun games that will keep everyone interested. There are all kinds of games, brain teasers, and action games that a leader can provide to keep the kids laughing—like Hip Flip and Crab a Loop. These will keep the lights on and the boys occupied!

There is a boy in my class that I like very much. He seems to like me and he acts very friendly. The trouble is that he has never asked me for a date or to see me outside of school. What can I do?

... G.L., Brooklyn, New York

Looks like you'll have to make the first move. Invite a few girls over to your house for an afternoon or evening of records and cakes. Ask this boy if he'd like to join you. If he's been wanting to see you but too shy to ask, he'll jump at the chance—and that might be the start of something great between you!
